FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

St. Johns County Recognizes Constitution Week

ST. JOHNS COUNTY, Florida, September 5, 2023 – Clerk Brandon J. Patty addressed the Board of County Commissioners at the Sept. 5, 2023, Board of County Commissioners regular meeting to discuss the 236th anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution, which will take place on Sept. 17, 2023. Commissioner Roy Alaimo then presented a proclamation to Clerk Patty recognizing Sept. 17 to Sept. 23, 2023, as Constitution Week.

The Clerk of Courts and County Comptroller's Office serves as a part of the system of checks and balances for the Judiciary and County government. From accounting support to recording minutes at County meetings, the Clerk's staff helps protect the public by providing a second set of eyes and controls on vital processes and procedures.

In recognition of Constitution Week, residents are invited to pick up a free copy of the U.S. Constitution at one of the customer service areas in the St. Johns County Courthouse throughout the month of September.
