a. Presentation from Community Advocates for Racial Equity (CARE)*- requesting support for a Public Housing Authority in St. Johns County

b. Financial Advisor's Application Review for Summerset Village & Summer Breeze - 200 & 305 Summer Breeze Way, St. Augustine, FL, built in 2006, 216 total units (132 senior units at Summer Breeze and 82 Family units at Summerset Village), 100% of units at 60% AMI rent restrictions. Developers are Lincoln Avenue Communities and Summerset Village Preservation, LTD.

The developer is requesting $33,000,000 Bond Allocation. Their plans are to complete a roughly $50,000 per unit substantial rehabilitation of the property to preserve its long-term condition and provide a high quality of life for existing and future residents.

If approved they are targeting an October 2024 closing and expect to complete the rehabilitation of the project in October 2025.

- Approve Inducement Resolution
- Approve Intent resolution delegating to the Executive Director the ability to host the TEFRA hearing (via teleconference) so we secure St Johns County Board of County Commission approval that is required prior to filing the allocation request.
